Commissioner Stephen P. Kennedy
New York City Police Department
New York, New York

Dear Commissioner Kennedy:

I would like to take this opportunity to express my appreciation to you for the many courtesies extended to members of my staff on their recent visit to New York City.

Their trip would not have been nearly so successful had it not been for the personal interest you evinced by devoting an entire afternoon to discussions with this group, in spite of your busy schedule.

Again, many thanks for your assistance.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles

Mrs. John F. Kennedy

Dear Jackie:

Months ago you kindly loaned me a book by Ian Fleming, which I read with vast interest, and thereafter when I was in London, I got in touch with the author.

Now I have just got my hands on a later edition of what I believe is the author's last publication, which is a similar thriller to the one you gave me, and I send it along, hoping that you had not already seen it.

Sincerely,

(Signed) ALLEN W. DULLES
